About David

David started dancing at 5 years of age and qualified as a Scottish Country Dance teacher in 1993. He has taught regular branch classes in the north of England and workshops around the UK and also at RSCDS Schools in St Andrews, Pitlochry, New Zealand and TAC. He has also been very fortunate to receive invitations to teach around the world in such diverse locations as Japan, Russia, USA, Canada and across Europe.

David also served as a member of the RSCDS Education and Training Committee and, amongst other things, worked on the beginner's framework during his three year term.

David enjoys promoting good technique and derives a great deal of satisfaction from seeing dances performed to a high standard. His classes seek to help all abilities of dancer to achieve their own personal best whilst ensuring that they have fun!

NB: Dancers wishing to attend MUST:

- be able to perform all steps and most formations to a high standard of accuracy
- Show good phrasing, handing and covering
- have attended classes on a regular basis for at least five years

If in doubt - please ask your regular dance teacher for his/her opinion.
